

Child friendly accommodation.

For those guests travelling with babies/toddlers/young children, we have endeavoured to make Westburn as safe and welcoming as possible. To save you having to bring masses of kit, we provide:-

- A cot
- Spare linen for the cot
- Changing mat
- High chair
- Booster seat
- Potty
- Childs toilet seat
- Child's step
- Bed guard
- Night light
- Baby bath
- Bath toys
- Non-slip mat
- Changing mat
- Plastic cutlery, plates and bowls
- Bottle steriliser
- Hand-held blender
- Baby monitor
- Microwave

In addition, there is a range of toys, books and DVD's that will hopefully keep our younger guests entertained. There are no additional charges for any of these items.

The house and garden have also been made as child friendly as possible. In the kitchen, all low-level units are fitted with child-proof locks in order to keep little fingers away from sharp knives or hazardous cleaning products. The kitchen also has a heat alarm, connected to the smoke and carbon monoxide alarms, so that if one is triggered, they all go off.

There are no low-level glass doors, and ornaments are at a height that toddlers are unable to reach.

The rear garden is enclosed, with access from the kitchen, the patio doors, or a lockable side gate. Plant wise, it is still a work in progress, but we intend that there will be no toxic plants, and anything thorny, such as roses, will be toward the back of borders, and well away from the lawn. We have avoided installing water features, but we do have a blow-up child's paddling pool, for those frequent hot and sunny days that Scotland is famous for...
